

GUIDE SHEET: OBTAINING IDENTIFICATION NUMBERS FOR HAZARDOUS WASTE TRANSPORTERS

1. Determine if you will be transporting RCRA hazardous waste. If you need assistance regarding waste classification, call the Department of Toxic Substances Control (DTSC) Waste Identification & Recycling Section at (916) 327-4499.
2. Read and follow the instructions below according to the type of waste you are planning to transport.
3. If you plan to transport RCRA hazardous wastes or both RCRA and Non-RCRA hazardous wastes:
 - a. Complete the Notification of Regulated Waste Activity, EPA Form 8700-12. Refer to the "Instructions and Forms" for clarification and reference. In Box 12 (Comments), write "Will transport RCRA hazardous waste only" or "Will transport RCRA and Non-RCRA hazardous wastes."
 - b. Mail the completed forms to:

Tetra Tech
Attention: Notifications
135 Main Street, Suite 1800
San Francisco, CA 94105
 - c. If your company is located within California, you may call the EPA Notification Information Line at (415) 495-8895 after ten (10) business days to request your Federal EPA ID number.
 - d. If your company is located in another state, contact the U.S. EPA regional office for your state.
 - e. Enter the Federal EPA ID number on your Hazardous Waste Transporter Registration Application, DTSC Form 187, Box 8 (Transporter Identification Number).
4. If you plan to transport Non-RCRA hazardous wastes only:
 - f. Complete the DTSC Form 1358 and mail the completed form to:

Department of Toxic Substances Control – GISS
P.O. Box 806
Sacramento, CA 95812-0806
 - g. It will take up to four (4) weeks to issue a State ID number. Write "pending" on your Hazardous Waste Transporter Registration Application, DTSC Form 187, in Box 8.
 - h. Mail a copy of your completed DTSC Form 1358 with your Hazardous Waste Transporter Registration Application, DTSC Form 187.
5. You may not transport hazardous waste until you received your DTSC Hazardous Waste Transporter Registration.
6. If you have any questions regarding your Hazardous Waste Transporter Registration application, call the Transporter Help Line at (916) 440-7145, or email transporter@dtsc.ca.gov.
